Websites of the Week:

1) The Berry Health Network. This is a great resource for research that's been published on berry health benefits.

2) 2007 Berry Health Benefits Symposium information. June 11-12 in Corvallis. This is the event to attend to get the very latest on berry health research and meet the leading berry researchers from around the world. Sponsored by the Oregon Raspberry and Blackberry Commission, the Oregon Strawberry Commission, the Washington Red Raspberry Commission, the US High Bush Blueberry Council, the California Strawberry Commission and the Wild Blueberry Industry. Take a look at the schedule, very impressive.
